The Daily Commercial.

The report of the Allegheny Park Commissioners, presented in Councils last evening, exhibits the progress made in that important improvement. It will be seen that the Managers of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company design co-operating with the Commissioners in beautifying the Commons through which their road runs. This action of the company is commendable and exceedingly gratifying to the Park Commissioners, as it will enable them to carry out the original design of embellishing the Park.

NEW YORK, October 8.—The second day's proceedings of the Protestant Episcopal Convention, opened this morning at Trinity Chapel, Twenty-sixth street, with proper morning services, in which Bishop Talbot, of Georgia, officiated so far as the creed. Bishop Neely, of Maine, read the psalter for the 8th of the month. The psalm beginning "Praise God, ye servants that stand," was sung. The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Smith, of Kentucky.

After a few minutes' recess, which the delegates passed in social conversation, the Convention was called to order [illegible] by Rev. Jos. Clark, D. D., of Kentucky. The minutes of the preceding business were read and approved.

Another Rousing Mass Meeting at Kittanning.

Daylight and Torchlight Processions.

Eloquent Speeches and Great Enthusiasm.

Five Thousand Persons in Attendance.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather yesterday, the Republican mass meeting at Kittanning was a most successful affair. At an early hour in the day the delegations from the surrounding country began to pour into the town by hundreds, and before noon the streets of the borough were swarming with staunch Republicans, and resounding with cheers for Grant and Colfax, and patriotic strains of martial music.

A special train of eight cars from this city left the Allegheny Valley depot at half past eight o'clock taking up the Grant Western Band, the Second ward and the Ninth ward Grant and Colfax clubs.

CLEVELAND.

Grand Republican Demonstration.

100,000 People on the Streets.

Letters from Senator Fessenden and Governor Fenton.

Addresses by the Hon. E. M. Stanton and Others.

CLEVELAND, October 8.—The Republican mass meeting to-day is conceded on all hands to be the most imposing demonstration in numbers and enthusiasm ever made in Northern Ohio. There were one hundred thousand people on the streets, and the procession was an hour and a half in passing a given point, marching rapidly in close order. The torchlight procession to-night is fully two miles in length, in close order. Addresses were made by Governor Hayes, Senator Sherman, Ex-Secretary Stanton, General Garfield, General Sherwood and Lieut. Gov. Lee. The letter of declination from Senator Fessenden, of Maine, says:

"I sincerely regret my inability to be with you at the proposed mass meeting in Cleveland. We are all just now looking to Ohio with peculiar interest. One of her most prominent sons claims to be the originator of a financial doctrine which the Democratic party has adopted in its platform, and which I cannot but consider as at war with the plainest principles of common honesty. Maine has declared her opinion in terms which cannot be misunderstood. It remains to be seen what Ohio thinks of it. [illegible]

Boys in Blue Parade at Bucyrus, Ohio.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

BUCYRUS, Ohio, October 8, 1868.

The Grant Boys in Blue had the largest and most successful parade of the campaign here last night. About five hundred torches were out, besides numerous political transparencies. Local speakers addressed the crowd, which was as enthusiastic as could be desired. The procession was stoned in several places. The Copperhead mayor of the city was conspicuous, hallooing "thief" and "boots," blackguard Democratic allusions to Hon. W. H. Gibson. The Democratic Justice of the Peace also was Democratically oblivious to much disturbance around him, upon the plea that he did not know whether the attempts at interruption were made by Republicans or Democrats. The infamous discredit of Bucyrus was fully maintained.

Politics in Richland County, Ohio.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 8, 1868.

At Lexington, in Richland county, last night, a political discussion was held between T. H. Cowan, on the part of the Democrats, and General R. O. Brinkerhoff for the Republicans, both of this city. The disputants conducted their opposing causes with great ability, and to the satisfaction of their friends. It was manifest, however, that the sentiment of a large majority of the audience was with General Brinkerhoff. Mr. Cowan opened in an hour. General Brinkerhoff answered in an hour and a half, and Mr. Cowan closed in half an hour. Col. Burns had been pitted against Gen. Brinkerhoff at first, but for some reason Cowan was substituted. The best of order was maintained by both parties during the discussion.

A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held in this city last night, addressed by J. R. Sherwood, Esq., candidate for Secretary of State. The speech was able and eloquent, and Mr. Sherwood proved himself worthy of the position to which he is to be elevated next Tuesday. H. C. Hedges and H. P. Davis, of this city, spoke in Independence last night. The meeting was held in a church and was well attended. During the meeting the church was stoned by Democratic roughs. The carriage of the speakers was also badly damaged, the top being cut off, and the cushions cut to pieces by the Ku-klux Democracy of that delightful region. The speakers were also stoned as they left for home after the meeting.

The last grand rally of the campaign will take place to-morrow (Friday) evening, when the Grant Guards from the entire county will parade in Mansfield. Eloquent and timely addresses will be delivered by good speakers.

The Connecticut Elections!

HARTFORD, CONN., October 8.—Full returns of the town elections show of the one hundred and sixty-three towns that voted on Monday, eighty-six are clearly Republican, sixty-nine Democratic, and divided. The Republicans gain the entire registration board in eleven towns that were Democratic last year, and gain a portion of the boards in five towns that were wholly Democratic last year. The Democrats gain the registration boards in five towns that were Republican last year, and in two towns that were partly Republican. The above is official.

Massachusetts.

WORCESTER, October 8.—The Eighth Congressional District Republican Convention to-day nominated Geo. F. Hoar for Congress, and Hon. Paul Whiting for Presidential Elector.

Rhode Island Democratic Convention.

PROVIDENCE, October 8.—In the Democratic State Committee to-day, A. Vanslick presided. The nominations for Presidential Electors are Lyman Pierce, Gideon Bradford, Geo. Lewis Cooke and Wm. H. Allen.

Democratic Meeting at Conneautville.

CONNEAUTVILLE, PA., October 8.—The largest meeting ever held in this place was addressed to-day by Brick Pomeroy and C. W. Carrigan, of Philadelphia. Pomeroy left off speaking to an immense crowd of Republicans and Democrats in the park at dark, and continues his speech in the hall to-night. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Pomeroy will close the October campaign in Crawford county at Meadville on Saturday this week, when there will be the greatest Democratic meeting ever held in this county.

North Carolina.

GREENSBORO, N. C., October 8.—John Q. Adams passed through here yesterday, on his way South. He was met at the depot by citizens of both races en masse. He was introduced to the people by Col. J. T. Scales, and made a speech.

Georgia.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 8.—The Democratic delegates to the Fifth Congressional District Convention met to-day to nominate a candidate for Congress. In consequence of the action of the Legislature postponing the election till February, it was decided to make no nomination for the present. John Quincy Adams has been invited by the Democrats to visit this city and deliver an address.

Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, October 8.—The bill which passed the Senate amending the registering law and forbidding registrars going beyond the law was lost yesterday in the House. Writs of mandamus before the courts daily in cases of registrars who refuse registration to persons naturalized in the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh District Courts since the third of July, 1868. The mandamus in all cases is made peremptory. There are several thousand such naturalizations in the city, and the registrars will be governed by the decision of the courts, and refuse registration to each applicant, which necessitates a separate writ in each case, notwithstanding that the decision in a test case would be taken as conclusive. In the Sixth District Court Judge Cooley stated that a certificate of naturalization issued from that court had the effect of a judicial decision. Some of the registrars who, notwithstanding, persisted have been arrested and fined for contempt of court. A number of similar cases will come before the courts to-morrow.

Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, October 8.—The Democrats had a grand torchlight procession to-night, and made a very brilliant display. About 3,000 uniformed men were in line. Three stands for speakers were erected, but the procession was so late arriving on the ground that at 11 o'clock no speeches had been made. There was a fine display of fireworks, however, and an immense throng of people present. The streets through which the procession passed were densely crowded with spectators, and quite a number of houses were finely illuminated. The enthusiasm was very great, and cheers were loud, hearty and almost continuous.

Conservative Meeting in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, October 8.—The Conservative soldiers and sailors of Brooklyn held a great mass meeting to-night, preceded by a torchlight procession 8,000 strong.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Meeting of the Board of Commissioners at Norwich, Conn.—Next Session to be Held in Pittsburgh.

NORWICH, CONN., October 8.—The Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions this morning were occupied in the reading of reports. The Standing Committee on various missions voted that the next meeting be held at Pittsburgh, Pa. In the afternoon communion service was held in all the Congregational and Central Baptist churches.

At a business meeting this afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, Mark Hopkins, D.D., LL.D.; Vice President, Hon. Wm. E. Dodge; Prudential Committee, Charles Stoddard, Nehemiah Adams, D.D., A. C. Thompson, D.D., W. S. Griffith, Hon. Alpheus Hardy, Hon. L. Child, Rev. Albert Barnes, Robert R. Booth, D.D., Abner Kingman, James M. Gordon, Rufus Anderson, D.D., Ezra Farnsworth; Secretaries for correspondence, Rev. Selah B. Treat, N. G. Clark, D.D., George W. Wood, D.D.; Recording Secretary, Rev. John O. Means; Treasurer, Langdon S. Ward; Auditor, James S. Bayes.

Immense meetings were held in the Broadway and Second Congregational churches this evening, which were addressed by President Roberts, of Liberia, and several returned missionaries.

CITY MATTERS.

DEATH OF A PITTSBURGHER AT CINCINNATI.—Jed. S. Gray, formerly of this city, but for several years the local ticket agent of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, at Cincinnati, died at his residence in that city on Friday last, of typhoid fever.

PERSONAL.—James Onslow, Esq., who has been confined to his dwelling for the past six months with rheumatism, has so far recovered as to be able to get about with the aid of a crutch. Mr. Onslow has suffered severely, and his numerous friends will be glad to hear of his recovery.

THE RECENT LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION.—The Coroner's Jury, in the case of Geo. Gilmore, killed by the explosion of a locomotive on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, met on Wednesday, and after examining a number of witnesses, found the following verdict: "That the deceased came to his death by the explosion of the boiler of engine No. 12, on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh, on the 29th day of September, 1868, at seven o'clock A. M.; cause of explosion unknown to the jury, the jury exonerating the engineer and other employees of the road."

TAKEN OVER.—Deputy Sheriff Thomas B. Cluley, Wednesday afternoon, conveyed the following persons to the Western Penitentiary: Louis Sunlight, convicted of larceny and sentenced to one year's imprisonment; Dougherty Cramer, convicted of an attempted rape and sentenced to three years' imprisonment, and Frank Williams, alias Charles Edwards, who plead guilty to two charges of larceny and one of attempted burglary and sentenced to three year's imprisonment. They were all safely consigned to their new quarters.

NEW MUSIC.—A new ballad with chorus, entitled, "Make Yourself at Home," has been sent to our table by Sep. Winner, Esq., the well known publisher, 926 Spring Garden street, Philadelphia. The words and music are from the pen of that talented composer, Alice Hawthorne, author of "Enoch Arden," or, "I'll Sail the Seas Over," "What is Home Without a Mother?" &c., &c. The ballad is dedicated to H. J. Murdoch, Esq., one of the editors and proprietors of the United Presbyterian of this city, and we have no doubt will become a favorite with the lovers of good music and beautiful sentiment.

NATURALIZATION.—By way of giving our readers an idea of the amount of naturalization going on at present, we can state that on yesterday alone, John G. Brown, Esq., Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, issued papers to fifty-five persons, S. C. McCandless, Clerk of the U. S. District Court to thirteen, and H. D. Gamble, Clerk of the U. S. Circuit Court, of four persons, making a total of seventy-two. About twenty-five of those naturalized in the Quarter Sessions Court were employees of the Cambria Iron Works, of Morrell & Co., at Johnstown, Pa. The Court not being in session there, they were brought to this city and put through our Courts.

The County Fair.

Notwithstanding the cold, damp state of the weather yesterday, the attendance was quite good. There were no new features of any consequence in the displays. Quite a number of spirited ponies kept the riding park quite lively during the afternoon. Several runaways occurred, one of which resulted in severe injuries to one of the Carson Bros., Agents of the Empire sewing machine, the other in nothing more than the entire demolishment of a very handsome buggy. We call attention to a notice of some of the more prominent displays, not mentioned yesterday.

Photographic Display of W. H. Whitehead, 70 Fifth Avenue.

We may say without hesitation that the display made by this leading Photographer was one of the most extensive and attractive of the fair. The pictures prepared by Mr. W. for this occasion excel any that have ever been exhibited this side of the mountains. They cover one entire section of the artist's gallery, and were constantly surrounded by a throng of admirers. Mr. Whitehead has on every former occasion taken all the first premiums for his productions, and we do not wonder that his competitors in this city should have become discouraged and remained away. If space permitted we might dwell upon each picture and describe its merits; but suffice it to say they were all as near perfect as can be conceived possible. Especially noticeable were the plain photographs of all sizes. Several life size heads of well known ladies, done in water colors, were very beautiful. The oil paintings of Dr. A. M. Pollock, Dr. J. G. McCandless and Mayor Blackmore, excel anything of the kind in their style of finish we have ever seen. Mr. W. has fully demonstrated at this fair that he is the leading photographer of Western Pennsylvania. We advise all who wish to have a picture worth preserving to visit Mr. W's gallery, at No. 70 Fifth avenue.

S. M. Kier & Co., Queensware.

Nothing in the fair interested us so much as the extensive exhibition of queensware; China stoneware, Bristol ware, fruit jars, &c., manufactured by this firm. We were not aware until yesterday, that the manufacture of the finer qualities of queensware had been attempted in Pittsburgh. But this firm has demonstrated on a large scale that it can be done. They have an extensive factory and are manufacturing every variety of articles in great quantities. An examination of these articles to-day, at their extensive warehouse, 93 Liberty street, proved that they can compete successfully with any goods of this line imported from Europe. We hail this as an era in Pittsburgh. There is no reason why we cannot supply the entire West and South with queensware as well as glass. We commend this enterprise to the consideration of our merchants who desire to see the drain of gold which goes for foreign goods stopped.

The Floral Display of J. K. and A. Murdoch.

The very extensive and truly elegant display of fruit and ornamental trees, and especially the profuse exhibition of boquets, full blooming greenhouse plants and rustic work, excited universal admiration. This firm received first premiums yesterday on nearly all of these articles, especially their beautiful boquets, and magnificent rustic work. We understand that these will be removed to their store on Smithfield street, opposite the Postoffice, and will be for sale at reasonable rates.

Business Show Cards by Messrs. Crane & Co., 69 Fifth Avenue.

Almost the first thing that strikes the visitor's attention, is the display of very elegant and artistic show cards, manufactured by this firm. Every business man can see at a glance that these gentlemen understand this business better than any we have ever before had in our midst. Their display is very extensive, embracing every variety, and their designs show a great deal of ingenuity in getting up devices to attract attention. Some of the cards have striking devices characteristic of various kinds of business. Some are imitations of velvet, others frosted, and they are all bound in metal which effectually preserves them from wearing out. They are the only parties authorized to use this improvement in the city. Our business men will find it to their advantage to get their show cards made by this firm. We understand these cards are more economical than any others.

John Donaldson—Fruit and Ornamental Trees.

This gentleman is the proprietor of a very extensive and prosperous nursery at Kittanning. He makes it his specialty and devotes his entire attention to the cultivation of fruit and ornamental trees and grape vines. He had on exhibition yesterday some fruit and ornamental trees, and some one year old grape vines that for healthy appearance and extent of growth we never saw excelled. He is prepared to supply any number. Address him at Kittaning, Pa.

Display of Carriages, Buggies, &c., by Stoner & Marlatt.

The Carriages and Buggies on exhibition from this firm attracted universal attention. The neatness and gracefulness of style, the very superior finish and the strength and durability of the work, it was admitted, had never been excelled in this city either by home or Eastern manufacture. The extensive works of this firm is at 169 and 171 Penn street, and is well worth a visit at any time. They are determined that they will produce work that shall not be surpassed anywhere. They employ the very best mechanics and use only the finest material. Every citizen of Pittsburgh who feels proud of its manufacturing interests should examine their work before sending East for that which is inferior. They warrant their work to be equal in finish, style and durability to any in the country and can sell at much less prices than Eastern work can be obtained.

Equipments, Flags, Transparencies, Torchlights, &c.—The Demand Still Increasing—Pittock's Factory in Full Blast.

Notwithstanding the immense demand made on Mr. J. W. Pittock for equipments for the demonstrations of both parties, and the revival of the demand since the Republicans have determined to have another monster procession, he is still prepared to supply any demand that may be ordered at the shortest notice.

Flags of all sizes and prices, Transparencies, Torchlights, Caps, Capes, Leggings, Medallion Pins, Badges, and every article necessary for the campaign. There is but little time to lose, and what is done should be done quickly and well. Let every one who feels an interest in the struggle supply himself at once. The cost is but a trifle, while the influence of a large demonstration is incalculable. Tanner Clubs, Grant Clubs, Wide Awakes and Ward Clubs swell your numbers, do your best and the cause will be won. J. W. Pittock can supply all in city and country at less rates than any other house East or West. Send in your orders at once.

The Wylie Street Riot.

Yesterday afternoon a hearing took place before the Mayor in the cases of John Bradford, Thomas Grogan and Bernard Gallagher, charged with riot and malicious mischief, on oath of Messrs. Biggs & Hoyle, Louis Susman, Richard A. Jenkins, and others. The parties mentioned and another fellow named Murphy, at an early hour on Tuesday morning, created a riot on Wylie street near Fifth avenue. Murphy had previously broken the windows in the drug store of Joseph Abel at the corner of Grant street and Fifth avenue, and the disorderly actions of his companions and himself culminated in the riot on Wylie street. The large plate glass show window of Messrs. Biggs & Hoyle, Jewellers, was broken, a show case was demolished and property belonging to them damaged to the amount of $400. The windows of Louis Susman's second-handed store, adjoining, were likewise demolished, as was also the windows in the tailoring establishment of R. A. Jenkins. A young man named Gravener, who was in the jewelry store at the time of the riot, was pretty roughly handled by Grogan. Gravener made information against Grogan, charging him with felonious assault and battery. He was also charged with malicious mischief by Jenkins, and then there were two informations against the entire party for riot. Murphy was also charged with malicious mischief by Mr. Abel, the druggist, but he has not yet been arrested. At the hearing, yesterday, W. C. Moreland appeared for the defendants, who were all present. The informations for riot were withdrawn and Bradford and Gallagher were released. Grogan was held to bail in the sum of $3,000 to answer at Court the charge preferred by Gravener, and in one thousand for a further hearing on the charge preferred by Jenkins.

Singular Accident—A Man Killed by a Sky Rocket—Coroner's Inquest.

On Monday night, while the Democratic procession was passing along Ross street, in the old Fifth ward, a sky rocket was sent off from one of the wagons in the procession. Instead of going upward, the rocket shot to the sidewalk, rebounded and struck a young man named Patrick Malone, who was standing on the pavement, in the abdomen. The blow was a terrible one, and inflicted a serious wound; the intestines being literally crushed. The injured man, who was standing with a lady at the time of the sad occurrence, was carried to his home on Tunnell street in the same ward, where medical aid was called in. At first it was thought he would survive his injuries and his condition on Tuesday pointed towards his recovery. On Wednesday, however, he began to sink and death ensued on that evening. Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the remains yesterday and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts. It is not known who set off the rocket.

Naturalization in Cambria County.

The Democracy of Cambria county have been pursuing the same course that their brethren of Philadelphia have in naturalizing aliens. Men who have not been in the country four months have been put through in the county Court, and vouchers were ready and willing to put through all who presented themselves, no matter what the duration of their residence. In order to cover up their illegal proceedings, their organ has charged Republicans with doing the same thing. Among others against whom they intimate illegal proceedings is Mr. Jelly, a gentleman whom loyalty to law and order is only equalled by his patriotism. Mr. Jelly has vouched for a number of men whom he knew to be entitled to citizenship, and has repeatedly refused to assist those disqualified when asked to do so. He has accompanied all the men for whom he vouched into the presence of the Court, and in a number of instances A. Kopelin, Esq., a prominent attorney, became a voucher with him. The slander of the Democrat is scarcely worth heeding.

Marching Phalanx Not Assaulted.

In common with our cotemporaries yesterday morning, we stated that the Marching Phalanx of the Seventh and Eighth Ward Grant and Colfax Club were assaulted while coming down Wylie street. On the authority of Alderman Butler, who was with the Phalanx, we are requested to state such was not the case. The company were not molested when passing down, but on the contrary were escorted by a number of the members of the Third and Fifth Ward Democratic Club. It is due to the orderly members of the latter club that the truth be stated, as they have on all occasions discountenanced these attacks.

The Republican Demonstration on the South Side To-night.

The Republican citizens on the South side are requested to meet at the headquarters of the Birmingham Grant and Colfax Club on Denman street, this evening, where torches will be furnished those who desire to participate in the demonstration. From the preparations that have been made it is safe to presume that the procession will be a very large one.

BELL ERECTED.—The new bell for the East Birmingham Public School building, which was delivered a day or two ago, has been erected and is now in use. It can be heard through all the boroughs on the south side when tolled, and a number of persons living near the School House, watch it with great satisfaction, as it moves to and fro.

THE MAYOR AND HIS POLICE.

Meeting of Citizens—A Stormy Session—Increase of the Police Force Recommended.

A call was published in the evening papers of yesterday, for a meeting of citizens, to be held at the Mayor's office at four o'clock, to devise some means to aid the Mayor in giving protection to processions of both parties while marching through the streets.

Mayor Blackmore had been engaged for an hour or more in hearing the charge of riot preferred against certain individuals who participated in the Democratic demonstration last Monday, and the office was thronged with the friends of the accused. As soon as the hearing was over, the Mayor announced that the public meeting would be held in the room above—Wilkins Hall—and the audience moved up there in a body. The Mayor read the call, and stated that he had done everything in his power to preserve the peace, irrespective of party, and would continue to do all he could to keep the city quiet and orderly.

Mr. Cherrington moved that Mayor Blackmore be called to preside, which was agreed to. Wm. Little, Esq., Thomas Steel, Esq., Bernard Rafferty, John A. Strain, Esq., Gen. A. L. Pearson, J. G. Weldon, George Wilson, John A. Myler, J. R. Butterfield, Esq., Chas. Jeremy, Joseph Brown and others, were named for Vice Presidents, but a number of them did not take their seats. The reporters were chosen as Secretaries.

No one seemed to have any business to offer, and the Mayor suggested that remarks would be in order.

Gen. Pearson was called on, but declined to respond, alleging that he was "engaged with a client."

Mr. Moreland was called, but made no response.

A. J. Baker then rose and offered a resolution to the effect that the President of each club, Republican and Democratic, be visited by a committee of citizens, and requested to dispense with any further torchlight processions until after the State election.

The resolution was met with a storm of hisses, which created great confusion for a time.

John C. McCarthy, Esq., moved the resolution be laid on the table.

This motion was applauded by Republicans and scouted by Democrats.

Thos. J. Keenan, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, had a substitute which he proposed to read.

Cries of "no," "no," "question," "question," etc.

John D. Bailey rose to a point of order, that a motion to lay on the table was not debatable or subject to amendment.

Mr. McCarthy's motion to lay on the table was adopted amid great confusion and shouts of "Mr. Chairman," "order," etc.

A motion was then made to adjourn, which created great confusion.

Mr. Keenan then got the floor, and remarked that the motion to adjourn was ill-timed and insulting, as he had the floor and claimed the right to be heard. He then read the resolution which he had proposed as a substitute for that offered by Mr. Baker, but as it favored a discontinuance of night processions it was received with hisses and other tokens of disapproval.

Mr. Keenan intended that no other recommendation than that of Mayor Blackmore should be adopted.

The motion to adjourn was renewed, which caused another hubbub.

Bartley T. Campbell protested vigorously against adjournment. "What do you mean?" exclaimed the speaker. Call a meeting of the citizens to protect persons and property, and then move to adjourn without taking any action? The proposition was ridiculous and absurd.

A gentleman suggested that all who wished to adjourn have leave to adjourn themselves.

John A. Myler got the floor and favored action looking to peace and protection. He could not think of dispensing with the processions, however. [Applause.] He belonged to a club which had arranged to parade that night, and intended to go out. [Applause.]

Mr. Keenan got the floor again, and claimed the right to be heard, as he had been interrupted by the crowd. He then made the assertion that there never had been a Democratic procession that was not assaulted with stones and other missiles. [Cries of "that's not so."] The speaker reiterated that such was the fact, and that the assaults had been committed in both cities. No company or club had a right to march through the streets, armed to the teeth, and indulging in insults calculated to provoke a breach of the peace. The law guaranteed no such thing. A certain newspaper had advised the men to go armed. [Cries—"yes, and we'll do it."] Of course you will, said the speaker, and then some boy or scoundrel will hurl a missile, and the procession in turn will assault those on the sidewalk, and bloodshed will follow.

The test was, when our party went armed, and another party was assaulted, the assaulting party was guilty of premeditated riot. [This remark created great indignation, with cries of "Who fired the first shot last night?" &c., &c.] The audience became very boisterous, and Mr. Keenan was unable to proceed, or at least to be heard, and he finally abandoned the floor.

Mr. Baker, in the highest state of excitement, jumped upon the reporters' desk, and made a speech, which no one could hear or understand, owing to the uproar and commingling of voices.

Mayor Blackmore, who had been vainly endeavoring to command order, stated that the presence of Sheriff Cluley had been announced to him, and he asked that gentleman to come forward to the stand. The Sheriff, if present, did not respond.

John Kelly followed in a few remarks, but his voice was almost lost in the shouting and tumult which prevailed through the hall. One hundred Republicans faced one hundred Democrats in angry conversation through the hall, and the meeting bid fair to terminate in a riot.

Bernard Rafferty was allowed to make a few remarks in reference to the riot on Wylie street, but was soon choked off, as the other speakers had been.

Mr. Oliver, although claiming to be a good Republican, gave Mr. Rafferty and his son great credit for their efforts to suppress the riot.

Mr. Campbell was in favor of both parties marching, but moved that the Captains of all Clubs report to the Mayor what streets of the city they intended to traverse, that they might be protected.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Baker then offered a resolution that a committee be appointed, without distinction of party, to raise funds to defray the expense of an extra police force.

Mr. McCarthy moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was agreed to, amid great confusion.

Mr. Oliver moved to reconsider the motion to lay on the table, and another scene of indescribable confusion followed.

Mr. Oliver then moved that the Mayor and Police Committee be requested to employ one hundred and fifty additional policemen, to be paid by the city, which was agreed to, and the meeting adjourned with shouts for Grant and Seymour.

THE Republicans of the boroughs and townships on the south side of the Monongahela river, will have a mass meeting and torchlight procession this evening. A number of the Grant Clubs and Tanners from Pittsburgh and Allegheny will participate in the procession.

THE MAYOR AND THE RIOT.

The riot of Wednesday night has awakened the public mind to the realization of the fact that we are in a state bordering on anarchy. It requires no proclamations from the Mayor to satisfy us on this point. We apprehended, weeks ago, that the immunity extended to the rowdy element by Mayor Blackmore would culminate in riot and bloodshed. We warned him, publicly, what the result would be if some efforts were not made to prevent attacks upon political meetings and processions. The warning was not heeded, and the attacks have been suffered to increase in number and magnitude until the blood of both parties has become so inflamed that neither can turn out without danger of exciting serious disturbance. COMMITTEE WORK.

[illegible]

Some of the Cincinnati papers propose to the business men there to close their stores next Tuesday in order to permit all in their employ to participate in the election. We desire to suggest that the great mills and other establishments in Pittsburgh should make such an arrangement with the voters in their employ as will facilitate their going to the polls, so that the voting will not be put off, as it frequently is, till a late hour in the day—a postponement that frequently results in the loss of votes. Let there be a general understanding among Republicans, not in Pittsburgh only, but everywhere, that the voting shall be done early. Democrats have an ancient fame for voting early, and sometimes often. Let all Republicans resolve to vote early, and then see to it that Democrats vote not more than once, and that those not entitled to vote do not vote at all.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUDS.

To the Republicans of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the Adjacent Boroughs.

Information of a trustworthy character has reached this Committee that the cities and adjacent boroughs are swarming with men brought here from other States to vote on Tuesday next.

Not one of these men is legally entitled to vote. They will be found in every election district, and it is the duty of Republicans, not only to watch them, but to avail themselves of the remedies provided by law for the punishment of illegal voting.

SMALL NOTES.

The movement among the workingwomen of New York promises to be productive of good. Instead of demanding suffrage, the really practical leaders in the movement have discovered that the solution of the problem before them is to be found in opening up those avenues of trade from which women complain they are now excluded. THE DEMOCRATIC DISPLAY OF MONDAY.

Being a Letter from [illegible] to his Uncle.

DEAR UNCLE—The Democratic procession came off on Monday according to advertisement. It was a show to brag of. Such a turn out of horses, and mules and wagons, and hickory brooms, and dogwood branches, you never saw. And then the flags, and such like, that were stuck out of windows! There wasn't a whisky shop in any of the most popular alleys of the town, where the article is retailed at the lowest Blair price, but had its front all beautifully decorated with paper copies of the National emblem. THE following expresses, in the happy manner peculiar to pure Southern poetry, the feelings which animate the Southern Generals, including Bobby Lee and Buckner:

My vote ain't worth much at the poll,
But I prefer Seymour with all my soul,
And so will the rebel army.

THE castle of Pau, which Napoleon has assigned to the exiled Queen of Spain, is situated in a town of that name in the shadow of the Pyrenees. It was the birthplace of the first of the Bourbons, and has undergone as many changes as the fortunes of that discarded family. It is near the frontier, and when the Queen is on the Spanish side of the chateau she can hear the shouts of the revolutionists and the blows of the image-breakers, who are putting an end to the statues and emblems of royalty, as well as to royalty itself.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURGH, October 7, 1868.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, Information has been received by me from a most reliable source, that certain persons are combining for the purpose of procuring weapons to be used in attacking political processions and public meetings, and committing other unlawful acts, I deem it my duty as Chief Magistrate to issue this, my Proclamation, enjoining on all good citizens to keep the public peace and to refrain from all acts calculated to endanger it, and in view of recent disturbances, I feel it incumbent on me to largely increase my police force, and will, if necessary, call to my aid the Sheriff of the county, in order that the safety of the citizens may be secured, and I now hereby notify all violators of law and order, without regard to persons or parties, that I will faithfully maintain the laws and will use my utmost endeavors to suppress riot and bring offenders to condign punishment, and I hereby invite all good citizens to aid me in the preservation of the public peace, and request the heads of all political processions and meetings to co-operate with me in the suppression of violence and disorder.

JAMES BLACKMORE,
MAYOR.

OCTOBER 7—10 O'CLOCK P. M.

The above Proclamation was written in full expectation that its public appearance this morning would be timely to prevent any encounter of citizens. The danger of the public peace has been anticipated by this night's events; and I now call upon each and every good citizen of this community, irrespective of all parties, to assist me by their individual influence in the suppression of that which would be regretted by our entire community and for the first time stain the fair fame of Pittsburgh.

As a means towards accomplishing this good and desirable end, I earnestly suggest to the Clubs of either Party a complete cessation of all parades, now that the day of election is so near at hand, when the public peace must be preserved, for the sake of the undisturbed sacred rights of the ballot.

JAMES BLACKMORE,
MAYOR.

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the Widening of Grant Avenue and its connection with the Allegheny and New Brighton Turnpike.

Be it Ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Council of the Borough of Bellevue, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, That the lane laid out by the late James Graham, on the western line of his property, be widened on the west side by taking fifteen (15) feet of the property of John Rynd, Hugh M. Bole and James P. Jack, making said lane thirty-five feet in width, and to be known as Grant Avenue.

And be it further Ordained and Enacted, That the lane connecting the aforesaid street or avenue at its north end with the Allegheny and New Brighton Turnpike, be widened on its north side by taking fifteen (15) feet from the property of Richard Straw, making said lane thirty-five feet in width.

SAML. CLANEY, Burgess.

Attest: M. HUNNINGS, Clerk.

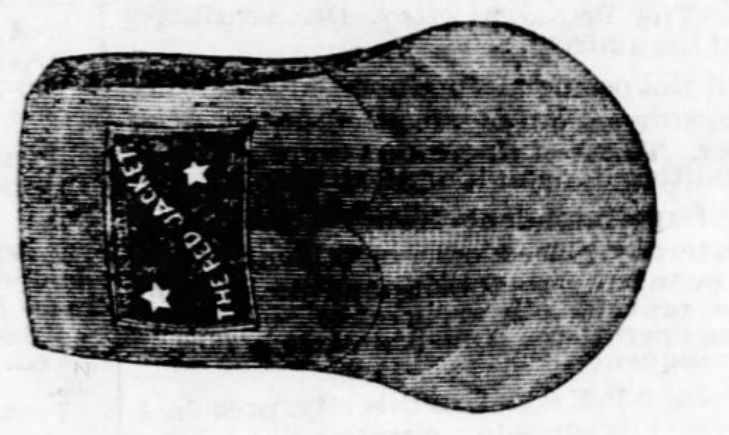
RED JACKET
AXES,



COLBURN'S PATENT.
Patented July 9, 1867. Re-issued Aug. 18, 1868.
Extracts from Letters and Reports of the working qualities of the Axes.
I. Your Axe is bound to be THE AXE.
II. It will cut 35 per cent. better.
III. My brother lost one arm in the war, but with your Axe, he can cut as well as any one else can.
IV. If I could not get another, twenty-five ($25) dollars would not buy it.
V. It will cut hoop-poles better than any other Axe.
VI. I would not be without it for anything.
VII. The only objection is, it goes too far into the wood.
VIII. Men who chop for a living universally approve of it, &c., &c., ad infinitum.
For sale by all reponsible dealers in the United States.
LIPPINCOTT & BAKEWELL,

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium, being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a Life Insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter, the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or to its General Agents.

LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies, with suitable indorsement, should be addressed TO THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.
